

VITA

Robert J. Hill

College Graduations

Millersville University, May, 1973, BS Biology, Secondary Education

University of Wyoming, August, 1975, MA, Botany

University of the State of New York & the Maryknoll School of Theology, May, 1989,
Theology (Environmental Ethics)

Employment Record

The Pennsylvania Department of Environment Resources, 1989-1995, Water Resource Education; Public Outreach Coordinator and Special Assistant to the Deputy Secretary for Public Liaison

The Pennsylvania Department of Conservation and Natural Resources, 1995-Present, Biodiversity Coordinator for the Bureau of Forestry

Selected Publications

Hill, R. J. (1995). Gay discourse in adult education. Adult Education Quarterly, 45(3), 142-158.

Hill, R. J. (1996). Learning to transgress: sociohistorical conspectus of the American gay lifeworld as a site of struggle and resistance. Studies in the Education of Adults, 28 (2), 253-279.

Selected Conference Presentations

“Heterosexist discourse in adult education: A gay/lesbian critique,” 35th Annual Adult Education Research Conference, University of Tennessee.

“Fugitive and codified knowledge: The struggle to control the meaning of environmental hazards,” 36th Annual Adult Education Research Conference, University of Alberta.